6. Do we disclose your personal data to third parties?

We do not disclose personal data to third parties.

7. For how long do we process and retain your personal data?

The data will be used for the newsletter service as long as the iCAN Newsletter is being sent and will be deleted thereafter.

8. Transfers of personal data to countries outside the EU/European Economic Area

We use MailChimp to send newsletters. The service provider is based in the United States and the data are also processed in the United States. MailChimp is committed to complying with the standard contractual clauses approved by the European Commission. More information is available on the MailChimp website.

9. What rights do you have?

The contact details in matters concerning the rights of the participant is the contact point mentioned in section 1 of this notice.

Right to withdraw your consent

When the processing is based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent any time. The withdrawal of your consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before the withdrawal.

Right to access

You have the right to know whether we process your personal data and what data we process about you. You have also the right to request for the access to that data.

Right to rectification

You have the right to request for the rectification of inaccurate personal data concerning you. You also have the right to have incomplete personal data completed.

Right to erasure and right to be forgotten

You have the right to request for the erasure of your data from our systems. The data will be erased in the following cases:

- a) the personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed
- b) You withdraw your consent on which the processing was based and there is no other legal ground for the processing
- c) You object for the processing and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing
- d) The personal data have been unlawfully processed
- e) The personal data have to be erased for compliance with a legal obligation in Union or Member State law to which the controller is subject

You do not have the right to erasure, if the processing is necessary:

- a) For compliance with a legal obligation which requires processing by law
- b) For the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority
- c) For archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes if the erasure is likely to render impossible or seriously impair the achievement of the objectives of that processing
- d) For the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims

Right to restriction of processing

You have the right to request for the restriction of processing. This means that we store the data but do not process it in any other way.

You have this right when:

- a) The accuracy of the personal data is contested by you. Then the processing will be restricted until the accuracy of the data is verified.
- b) The processing is unlawful and the data subject opposes the erasure of the personal data and requests the restriction of their use instead
- c) We no longer need the data for the purposes of the processing, but you need the data for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims
- d) You have objected to processing that is based on legitimate interest. Then the processing will be restricted for the time it is verified whether the legitimate ground for the controller override those of the data subject.

Right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority

You can always contact us if you have any questions or concerns about the processing of your personal data. However, you have also the right to lodge a complaint with the Data Protection Ombudsman's Office if you think your personal data has been processed in violation of applicable data protection laws.
